Document number 1009 Date, April 23, 1751

Most illustrious Margrave
Most gracious Prince and Lord,

Concerning the inheritance tax of some of the persons emigrating from Hagsfeld.

According to the report of the mayor to the Finance Office, which report is enclosed, the following persons are moving to the new country (in this case Pennsylvania) namely:

Old Johannes Meintzer was charged 20 florins, as shown in the enclosed affidavit, in payment for the inheritance tax of one head of the best cattle, which he owed as an emigree to the office of your highness, Prince of Durlach.

Young Johannes Meinzer, who according to the enclosed affidvait, produced 18 florins from the sale of his best head of cattle.

Young Michael Weber, who also was paid 20 florins for his best head of cattle, according to the affidavit which is also enclosed.
